

Earlier this week, Lisa Capozzoli, our Director of Care and Community, submitted her letter of resignation. We are grateful for Lisa's dedicated service and the way she shared her many gifts with the congregation. We will all miss Lisa, but will pray for her as she embraces a new opportunity and new chapter of ministry as Visitation and Care Pastor at Christ Church of Oak Brook.

Here is Lisa's letter to the staff:

Dear Friends,

It is with a full heart that I am sharing this news with you. Recently, Christ Church of Oak Brook contacted me. I met with their pastors and trustees several times over the month of November. And, on Monday night November 27 they made me an offer to work full-time as their Visitation and Care Pastor. I accepted.

My heart is breaking because not only have my husband John and I totally bonded with our ECRC family, but because I will miss all of you so much. You have been one of the best staff groups that I have worked with. You are an awesome bunch of people who love Jesus, love each other, and serve God and His Kingdom very well. But, God has called me to accept this position, and I have to honor God's call on my life and ministry.

I realize this is an extraordinarily busy time of year for everyone. So I appreciate your prayers and patience for all of us as we transition. I want to finish well here at ECRC and make things as grace-filled as possible. My last full day of work at ECRC will be on December 17.

Grace and peace in Christ,

Lisa
