What aspect of serving as a Deacon is especially compelling for you?

I love to help others either going in to a prison to pray for someone or going to a nursing home to sing to elderly and help. A deacon fills this goal of compassion and mercy.

There is a prayer/poem that I like: My Life is but a weaving between my Lord and me; I cannot choose the colors He works steadily. Oft times He weaveth sorrow And I, in foolish pride, Forget He sees the upper, And I the underside. Not till the loom is silent And the shuttles cease to fly, Shall God unroll the canvas And explain the reason why. The dark threads are as needful In the weavers skillful hand as the thirds of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned. He knows, He loves, He cares; Nothing this truth can dim. He gives the very best to those Who leave the choice to him. by Corrie ten Boom

I realize that I am blessed with the ability to help others in a variety of fashions and attempt to follow God's will and do so. Philippians 4:6-7 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Spiritual Gifts: Administration, Service/Helps, Leadership

What aspect of serving as a Deacon is especially compelling for you?

ECRC is home to me and my family. At a time when church attendance and engagement—particularly among Millennials and Generation Z are widely understood to be declining, I see a meaningful opportunity to be part of the solution. I believe I can bring a younger generation's perspective, energy, and understanding to the table while remaining firmly rooted in biblical truth along with ECRC's values. Making a difference in our community through the love of Jesus Christ is something I feel God has uniquely gifted me to do, and I see no better place to live that out than by serving the church as a Deacon.

Proverbs 24:10 "If you falter in a time of trouble, how small is your strength."

This verse has been especially meaningful to me in this season as a reminder that faith is revealed not when things are easy, but when challenges arise. It calls me to depend fully on God for strength, remain steady under pressure, and lead with perseverance, humility, and trust in Him....whether in my family, my coaching, my work, or my service to the church.

ECRC Ministry Involvement: Worship Team (Leading and Supporting), Student Ministries (large and small group)

Spiritual Gifts: Faith, Wisdom, Prophetic

It's my prayer that the Holy Spirit would lead the church back to a complete reliance upon the Word of God; that the Word of Christ would dwell in us and guide our thoughts, attitudes, and actions (Colossians 3:16). I pray that God would protect ECRC from falling prey to a different gospel (Galatians 1:6-7), that we would always tolerate sound doctrine and never turn away from the Truth (2 Tim 4:3-4). And as we proclaim the Truth in love, may God strengthen us with power through His Spirit to remain on the narrow road (Matthew 7:13-14).

Luke 15: 4-7 The parable of the lost sheep shows us God's heart: He wants all of us, especially those who are lost. He joyfully searches for sinners, even leaving the ninety-nine who are safe to find the one who has strayed the farthest. No place is too distant or too dark for Him—He will find you behind prison walls, in hospital rooms, and in moments when you feel ashamed, forgotten, or unwanted. You are never beyond His reach.
